News Update

Greetings! Our last printed newsletter was sent out last fall. If you are not receiving our e-mail updates, you may be wondering what our status is. The Lord has helped us accomplish some significant milestones since our last report:

- ✓ A number of people committed to meet our outstanding financial needs through new giving or increases in their monthly gifts and we are at 100% now! Krista and I are so thankful for all of you who have a part in making this possible!
- ✓ I have begun my assignment at JAARS as the Information Technology (IT) Operations Manager.
- ✓ We sold our home in Orlando and moved all of our possessions into temporary storage in North Carolina while we lived in a small apartment at JAARS.
- ✓ We have purchased a house near the JAARS center and have just moved into it.

We have included some photos here, and more are available on our web site: www.wysite.org/sites/the\_scotts

Home Address & Phone Update

Please note that our home address for personal correspondence has changed. Our new address is:

Hank and Krista Scott
7403 Davis Rd.
Waxhaw, NC 28173-8416

Our new home phone number is: 704-225-3851
 The address for financial gifts has not changed.

At the storage unit in North Carolina we began the unloading process with prayer. About 10 men showed up that day, volunteering to help us unload the semi truck's contents. Their help was a big blessing to us!

It was a tight squeeze but we packed all of our "stuff" into two 10 x 20 storage units—in total about the size of a small two car garage. We kept everything in storage while living in an apartment until we purchased a house.

After loading the JAARS semi truck in Orlando, we posed for a picture along with our friend Len Keyser, whose ministry is to drive truck nationwide assisting missionaries with moves.

Len begins the return trip to JAARS; the truck packed with our household possessions.

After a few months of looking, we purchased this seven year old home, just two miles from JAARS on a one acre partially wooded lot. It is in very good condition and just right for a family with teens.

We had a good crew of helpers assist us with moving into our house. The ladies directed which boxes and furniture went to which room.

Below: The neighbor's horses came over to welcome us to the neighborhood. We live next to a small horse ranch in a quiet rural area—quite a change from living in the Orlando suburbs!

Other Ways to Keep In Touch

As a reminder, we send out e-mail updates monthly. If you have access to e-mail and are not receiving these updates but would like to, just send me an e-mail (hank\_scott@wycliffe.org) and I will add you to our electronic mailing list. People say these updates help them know how to best pray for us.

If you have Internet access you can keep up to date by checking our web site for new content:

www.wysite.org/sites/the\_scotts

When we send out e-mail updates we normally post them on our web site, as indicated in the "What's New" section on our home page. Sometimes we put photos on the web site for folks to enjoy. Of course when things get very busy with work and at home, we struggle to find the time to keep the web site up to date, but we try to post updates at least once a month.

After the move, every room was stacked with boxes and furniture in a disorganized mess! It was overwhelming at first, and has taken us quite a while to get unpacked and organized. Today the house is feeling and looking more like home.

A few days after we moved in, our area experienced a snow storm with large heavy flakes, followed by freezing rain. Schools and most businesses were closed for the day, and our kids had a great time playing outside with others nearby. This part of North Carolina does not have weather like this often, and therefore they do not have a lot of plow trucks or salt trucks. For us the snow was a fun treat and it only lasted for a day before melting.

Praises & Prayer Requests

We thank the Lord for the increase in monthly support so that our needs can be met! God has provided just the right home for our family and we praise Him!

Please pray that the Lord would grant wisdom for Hank in his role in IT at JAARS. Pray also for stamina for Krista as she sets up the new household – moving is such a big job!

Thank you for praying for us!

In His Service,

Hank & Krista
